

Sports Day 2009

Smiles, cheers, and spirited action were demonstrated in abundance on Tuesday, November 3rd, as NT Heung Yee Kuk Yuen Long Secondary held the finals of their Sports Day. The event was held at Yuen Long Stadium, and the weather was wonderful.

A full range of events were competed in, highlighted by the ever popular 100m sprint and hurdles races, as well as the Family Games. Students demonstrated wonderful school spirit, and the House cheering teams lived up to their reputations of relentless support for their respective teams. Some of this year's results include:

Boys Overall Champion: Chung House

Girls Overall Champion: Heung House

Cheering Team Competition: Yuen House

Overall, the winning house was Heung House, with Chung House and Hok House being 1st and 2nd runners-up, respectively. The intra-staffroom relay saw Staff Room A pull out the win in a close finish.

Everyone in attendance, from students and staff to invited guests and dignitaries thoroughly enjoyed the day. Athletes and support teams are to be congratulated for a job well done!
