

English Day (12 October 2011)
Teachers and students enjoy having a melodic English Day

Beautiful English songs are played in the campus to highlight the feature of our second English Day. Students have interesting mini-games like filling in lyrics and crossword puzzle to play. Everyone chats with each other and the Principal surprises students by visiting them in their classrooms to talk about their everyday life together.