

Flag Selling Service

A team of students participated in flag selling activity on 8 December 2018. Our students not only actively participated in the activity, but also promoted volunteerism and harmony in the community.

