

Watching the Live Broadcast of the Grand Gathering to Mark the 80th Anniversary of the Victory in the Chinese People's War of Resistance Against Japanese Aggression and the World Anti-Fascist War
(3 September 2025)

On 3 September 2025 (Wednesday), a grand military parade was held in Beijing to commemorate the 80th Anniversary of the Victory of the Chinese People's War of Resistance against Japanese Aggression and the World Anti-Fascist War. Our school arranged for all teachers and students to watch the live broadcast of the grand gathering. This is a meaningful patriotic education activity that not only honours the victory in the war and the martyrs who sacrificed their lives for our country, but also deepens our understanding of the nation's advanced technology and military strength in defending the homeland. After all, the activity strengthens national pride and reminds us to remember history and cherish peace.

The flag-raising ceremony precedes the commemorative event.

We start the commemorative event with a flag-raising ceremony and a talk under the national flag.

The talk under the national flag focuses on the major events leading to the victory in the Chinese People's War of Resistance against Japanese Aggression.

Principal YUEN (1st left), Assistant Principals and teachers watch the live broadcast together with students in the Hall.

Our Principal, Assistant Principals, teachers and students attentively listen to President Xi Jinping's important speech.

The performance of People's Liberation Army (PLA) soldiers in the military parade captures our students' attention.

Our S1 and S2 students watch the live broadcast of the military parade in Hall.

Our S3 to S6 class teachers and students watch the live broadcast of the military parade in classrooms.

Fascinated by the advanced weaponry, our students have a great sense of pride in our country's military strength.
