Officiates Ceremony, Encourages Students to Stay True to Aspirations and Unleash Their Potential

(12 December 2025)

The 54th Annual Speech Day cum Inauguration Ceremony of School History Gallery Invitation was successfully held at our School Hall on 12 December 2025 (Friday). We were honoured to have invited Ms. Agnes TSANG, Associate Vice-President (Communications and Public Relations) at The Chinese University of Hong Kong to be the Guest of Honour to officiate the ceremony. We had the pleasure of the presence of the Mr. Kenneth LAU Ip-keung, SBS, MH, JP, Chairperson of the School Council, Ms. LAM Ching-wa, Tina, Chairperson of the School Management Committee, members of the School Council and the School Management Committee, guests, parents and alumni.

The establishment of the School History Gallery was made possible through the generous benefaction of the Heung Yee Kuk New Territories, the contribution of historical artifacts by our alumni, parents and teachers, and the insightful interviews shared by our esteemed guests. The Gallery chronicles the inseparable bond and shared history between Yuen Long, the Heung Yee Kuk New Territories, and our school. It features a precious collection of memorabilia, including historical archives, medals, trophies, report cards, documents, school uniforms, badges, student IDs, and various editions of the school journal. Additionally, a specially produced School History Video recounts the school's founding journey alongside moving stories from Mr. LAU Ip-keung, Chairman of the Heung Yee Kuk N.T., and members of the School Council and School Management Committee, as well as successive principals, parents, teachers, and alumni.

The proceedings commenced at 10:00 in the morning with the Inauguration Ceremony of the School History Gallery, with our guests, teachers, and students watching the live broadcast simultaneously. Following Principal YUEN's welcome speech, he presided over the unveiling ceremony together with the Guest of Honour Ms. Agnes TSANG, Associate Vice-President (Communications and Public Relations) at The Chinese University of Hong Kong, and the Honourable Kenneth LAU Ip-keung, Chairperson of the School Council. Subsequently, Principal YUEN accompanied the Guest of Honour and other guests to the auditorium for the Speech Day.

The 54th Annual Speech Ceremony started with a solemn National Flag Raising Ceremony. After that, Principal YUEN presented the Annual School Report. Principal YUEN reported that our students have been excelling scholastically, gaining wide acclaim from the public. Our students attained excellent results in the 2025 HKDSE Examination, with a total haul of 59 Level 5. They attained 77.1% Level 4 or above, and 43.4% Level 5 or above in the total number of subjects sat. In total, 91.5% of our S.6 graduates have met the general entrance requirements for local undergraduate university programmes, and around 50% of them were admitted to the degree programmes of the three main local universities. CHAN Cheuk-lai attained Level 5 in six subjects and Level 5* in one subject. Other noteworthy mentions include CHAN Pok-him, attaining Level 5 in five subjects and Level 5 in two subjects; RAY Tsz-him, attaining Level 5 in four subjects, Level 5* in three subjects; YIN Man-to, attaining Level 5 in four subjects and Level 5* in two subjects.

Heung Chung has put great emphasis on students' whole-person development, aiming to cultivate students' patriotic sentiments, sense of national identity, and positive values and attitudes through an array of activities aligning with the theme 'Be Grateful, Be Proactive, Be Positive'. Principal YUEN briefly reported a series of Patriotic Education-related activities and our students' outstanding achievements in various aspects including outstanding students awards, bilingualism and triliteracy, Mathematics, community services, sports, and art. The different prizes and awards obtained show our students' excellence and their all-round development in both academic and extra-curricular activities.

The Guest of Honour Ms. Agnes TSANG, presented prizes to outstanding prize-winners and gave us an inspiring speech. She reminisced about her school days at Heung Chung and encouraged students to adopt a human-centric perspective when navigating the future and overcoming challenges in this era of rapid information flow. She further urged them to harness their passion and focus to maximize their potential, stay true to their aspirations, and contribute to society. After that, a vote of thanks was delivered by LAW Cheuk-hei, Student Representative of this school year.

We were then honoured to have the Honourable Kenneth LAU Ip-keung, Chairman of the School Council present the Long Service Award to committed teaching staff for their unremitting devotion and contribution. This was followed by student performances: the Chinese Orchestra played 'We are Chinese'. The Speech Day ended in the singing of the School Song.
