

S4 Cross-curricular Visit to the Hong Kong Palace Museum: Ancient Egypt Unveiled: Treasures from Egyptian Museums

(20 May 2026)

On 20 May 2026 (Wednesday), our school's English Language Department and History Department jointly organized a S4 Cross-curricular Visit to the Hong Kong Palace Museum : Ancient Egypt Unveiled: Treasures from Egyptian Museums. Ms. TANG Wing-yi, Ms. CHEUNG Chui-hung, Ms. LAU Shuk-wa, Ms. HO Man-chi, Mr. YUEN Chun-wai and Ms. LEUNG Yee-hing Nancy accompanied the students to the museum.

The activity aimed to lead students on an in-depth exploration of the rare treasures of ancient Egyptian civilization, thereby broadening their horizons. Through engaging English-guided tours, students not only learned about the unique features of the exhibits but also enhanced their English proficiency. Through these hands-on experiences, students could explore ancient history and understand the importance of cultural preservation. It was truly a rewarding learning experience.

Students eagerly listen to the museum guide's presentation

Students flipping through their booklets, eagerly anticipating the exhibition

Students actively engage in answering questions

Students appreciating the exhibits

Students carefully studying the exhibits

Class 4A students taking a group photo in anticipation of their upcoming exhibition visit

Ms. LEUNG Yee-hing Nancy (2nd row 6th left), Mr. YUEN Chun-wai (2nd row 1st left) and Class 4B students are ready to explore the exhibition

Ms. TANG Wing-yi (back row 1st right) and Class 4C students are looking forward to visiting the exhibition

Ms. HO Man-chi (1st row 5th right) and Class 4D students are eager to explore the rare treasures of ancient Egyptian civilization

Ms. TANG Wing-yi (back row 2nd right), Ms. LAU Shuk-wa (back row 1st right) and Class 4E students pose for a wonderful group photo ahead of the exhibition visit

After the fruitful tour, Class 4E students took a group photo with Ms. TANG Wing-yi (back row 1st right) and Mr. YUEN Chun-wai (back row 1st left)