

Distinguished Alumni Talk: ‘International Relations: What Does It Have to Do with Me?’
by Mr. Andy CHAN Shui-fu
(25 June 2026)

We were deeply honoured to invite our distinguished alumnus, Mr. Andy CHAN Shui-fu, to our school for a talk titled ‘International Relations: What Does It Have to Do with Me?’ on 25 June 2026 (Thursday).

Mr. CHAN is currently Senior Director of Public Affairs, CEO’s Office, New World Development Co. Ltd., responsible for public affairs, and the CEO of New World Facilities Management Co. Ltd. (Youth Square). He brings a wealth of experience in public affairs and youth development.

During his engaging presentation, Mr. CHAN explained international relations in a broad and deep historical context. Grounded in historical facts, he compared the historical long-term development of the East and the West, guiding students to gain a deep understanding of what international relations should mean to them. He also encouraged students to learn more about our country’s deep history and global contributions. By elaborating on the philosophy of peaceful coexistence, Mr. CHAN inspired students to cultivate empathy, mutual respect, and a broader global perspective.

Principal YUEN (right) presents the commemorative flag to Mr. Andy CHAN Shui-fu (left)

Mr. CHAN shares his invaluable insight about international relations

Mr. CHAN discusses global dynamics with insightful perspectives

Mr. CHAN (1st row 3rd right), Principal YUEN (1st row 2nd right), Ms. TANG Wing-yi (1st row 5th left) and teachers take a photo with students