

The Hong Kong Olympiad in Informatics 2021/22
(28 December 2021)

6E MA Yixuan and 3D LAM Chi-hang won the Bronze Medal in the Hong Kong Olympiad in Informatics 2021/22 in the senior and junior category respectively. 6E LUI Ka-nam and FU Jia-cheng Charles were awarded Honourable Mention in senior category in the same competition.

Hong Kong Olympiad in Informatics (HKOI) is an annual software programming competition for secondary students in Hong Kong, emphasizing problem solving techniques and programming skills. It is organized by the Hong Kong Association for Computer Education, Education Bureau, and co-organized by Department of Computer Science and Engineering, Faculty of Engineering, The Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Prizes awarded are as follows:

Awardee	Award	Category
6E MA Yixuan	Bronze Medal	Senior
3D LAM Chi-hang	Bronze Medal	Junior
6E LUI Ka-nam	Honourable Mention	Senior
6E FU Jia-cheng Charles	Honourable Mention	Senior

Photo of Principal YUEN with 6E Ma Yixuan

Photo of Principal YUEN and Mr. CHEUNG Pak-wa (left) with 3D LAM Chi-hang

Photo of Principal YUEN with 6E LUI Ka-nam and FU Jia-cheng Charles (from left to right)