

The 5th Hong Kong Youth Calligraphy Contest

(11 December 2021)

2C CHEN I-fei won the Third Prize in both Ink Brush Calligraphy and Penmanship in the 5th Hong Kong Youth Calligraphy Contest.

Category	Award	Awardee
Ink Brush Calligraphy	Third Prize	2C CHEN I-fei
Penmanship	Third Prize	2C CHEN I-fei

On 11 December 2021, the Prize-giving Ceremony of the 5th Hong Kong Youth Calligraphy Contest was co-organized by the Hong Kong Ta Kung Wen Wei Media Group and the Chinese Calligraphers Association under the guidance of China Federation of Literary and Art Circles. 190 primary and secondary schools joined the contest with about 2000 entries of different styles of Chinese calligraphy including seal script, clerical script, regular script, semi-cursive script and cursive script. The content of the pieces included poems written by patriotic poets and revolutionists of older generation. 130 award-winning pieces were shortlisted.

The host highly commended the high quality and vast variety of all the entries which demonstrated Hong Kong youths' in-depth knowledge and understanding of traditional Chinese calligraphy of their motherland, and their vibrancy and mettle in the new era.